

ceramic implants

international magazine of ceramic implant technology

research

Prosthetic complications after artificial ageing

case report

The key to optimal implant aesthetics

interview

ISMI and IAOCI join forces

Patent

Re-think dental implants

Patent™ implants mark a new era for dental implants. Its reduced to the maximum approach sets a new standard for simplicity. Zero screws, one revolutionary surface, two components. The implants are made from ceramic (Y-TZP zirconia), available as one- or two-piece and completely customizable. The post is made from high-performance glass fiber. Reduced to the maximum, that's what Patent™ is all about.

www.mypatent.com